"Documenting the Jewish World One Photograph at a Time"

Formerly from Silver Spring, MD, Jono David is a 45-year-old British-American freelance photographer and writer, based in Osaka, Japan. His mission is to contribute to the preservation of Jewish Communities of the World by documenting them photographically. Each photograph gives vision to community life today while safeguarding memories for tomorrow. Jono has visited and taken pictures in 120 countries and territories.
